The storm broke at about 9 o'clock, a time when the 250-foot pier was crowded. A band was playing and perspiring waiters rushed about distributing the amber-colored liquid.

Even before the canvas began to give way the crowd sought shelter in the adjoining hotel, so that when the big blow came there were few in any peril. The fears at first entertained that several lives had been lost proved groundless, nor was any one seriously injured, so far as reported. The only dead body found was that of a dog.

The Feninsular and Oriental steamer Khiva while on her way from Rombay to Mecca carrying 379 pilgrims and a crew of 80 took fire and was totally lost. The fire was discovered amid the cargo and seemed to have been smoldering for some time. The vessel at the time was 150 miles from land. The captain, finding the fiames gaining, steered for the coast, and early next morning ran his ship on the beach.

In attempting to leave the burning ship a number of pilgrims rushed to one of the boats, which capsized and twenty of their number were drowned. The remainder of the passengers and crew reached shore in safety.

The action of Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois n pardoning the three Anarchists in Chicago has elated Anarchists in this city to such an extent that they are preparing to hold a public meeting to express their hearty approval of the course termined to prevent any gathering such as has been planned by Herr Most and his followers.

The Amerchists, it is said, have engaged the Windsor Theatre for to-mornow night, when it is proposed to have a grand gathering, at which the principal tousiness will be to uphoid Gov. Aligeld to pardoning the Amarchists, and to condemn the Judge and jury who found the Amarchists guilty.

It was learned at Police Headquarters to-day that Superintendent Byrnes would ston the Amarchists from holding the proposed meeting. Mr. Byrnes would not talk on the subject this morning, but the information came from a reliable source.

The Superintendent, it is known, will not tolerate such gatherings as the Amarchists had a few years ago, at which not tolerate such gatherings as the Anarchists had a few years ago, at which incendiary speeches were made calculated to incite the people to riot.

Mr. Hyrnes proposes to deal with the advocates of dynamite in such a way that there can be no mistake as to his intentions regarding them. He will make them understand that they will not be permitted to do as they like in this city, and that they must obey the law as well as other people.

Hence it is said he will break up the proposed meeting at the Windson Theatre to-morrow night, as such a gathering would be a breach of the peace.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 5. - President Cleveland reached Gray Gables at 9.30 P. M tew minutes before the beginning of the that has swept over Buzzard's Bay for years. York last Friday night with President Cleve-Gray Gables. From Monument Beach, a mile further down the bay, a small steamer could be seen miles away towards the larger bay.

All the afternoon a heavy wind blew and occasionally rain fell. At sunset the velocity of the wind increases and lishermen said a heavy storm was gathering. A half hour later two lights from a steamer's masts were seen a mile off Gray Cables. were seen a mile off Gray Cables.

Before the storm broke a small steam faunch left the steamer and a few minutes afterwards President Cleveland stepped upon the wharf at Gray Gables and hurried into the house. He was met on the veranda by Mrs. Cleveland and an affectionate greeting tollowed.

Mrs. Cleveland and an affectionate greeting tollowed.
Scarcely had the President entered the house when the storm broke with lury. Three times the lightning struck, once at the Buzzard's Bay station, again on the railway bridge and the third time it splintered a tree in Mr. Cleveland's woods.

The rain fell in torrents for haif an hour, and then hallstones as large as peas chased each other through the air. Then the hair changed to rain, which continued failing until after midnight. Had the uneida teen an hour later it is probable the steam launch could not have reached the wharf.

At 10.30 Mrs. Cleveland told a World reporter that the President was in good health and agreatly enjoyed his fishing excursion.

The Oneida is now anchored a half mile away from Gray Gables. The storm still continues and much damage has been done. Nearly all the telegraph and telephone wires in this section are down. Many politicians were wondering yester-day why secretary Lamont had falled to re-turn to town from his cruise. For their in-formation it may be stated that the year-oneida, on which the President was a pas-senger, put into Sag Harbor Tuesday night and took the Secretary of War aboard Sec-retary Lamont is expected to tring back some interesting news concerning New York appointments.

Inspector Marshail, of the Street-Cleaning Department, who is stationed at the Ruigers street dump, said sesterday that he has frequently seen the dump-pickers receaim fruit and vegetables from the seems, but that it is almost impossible to prevent them from smugging it away in sacks with rags and old from which they have a right to take away. A similar condition of affairs exists at the old slip dump. Inspector Kennedy, in charge of the pier, sail that he does not permit the Italiana to take anything but rags, from and bottles from the scows, out he confessed that other articles might be easily removed in sacks without his knowledge.

John Mursh, a Tongshoreman at the pier, said that when the refuse from the fruit ships is dumped into the scows the Italians remove it in large quantities and sell it in Multerry street.
